

Need help at court with your child protection matter?

The child protection duty lawyer provides free legal information and advice for people who are responding to applications in the Childrens Court.

The duty lawyer can:

- discuss your situation and the options available to you
- give you free legal information and advice
- explain what will happen in court
- help you with forms or documents needed in court
- help you to complete a Legal Aid Queensland application form
- let you know if you might be eligible for ongoing legal representation from Legal Aid Queensland
- refer you to other organisations who might be able to help you
- refer you to get legal advice, assistance and maybe representation for related family law and domestic and family violence issues.
