

Restorative justice conference

Restorative justice conference

- The judge or a police officer might send a person under 18 to a restorative justice conference.
- Your lawyer and people from your family or community can go with you.
- You will talk about what happened. You will talk about how to make things right. Maybe you will agree what you will do.
- You might talk with the person you hurt.

Conditions and orders