

Supervised release order

Supervised release order

Supervised release order

- After being in youth detention (juvie) for most of your sentence, you will be let out on a supervised release order.
- You will finish your order while you live in the community.
- A youth justice case worker will help you go to programs.
- You must follow the rules or you might make more trouble for yourself, and you might get locked up.

Conditions and orders