

Jail/lockup

- Sentence

Jail/lockup - Sentence

- When a judge sentences (punishes) you for breaking the law, they might send you to lockup (jail).
- You will leave jail only when the sentence is finished, or when a judge says you are allowed to leave.
- People under 18 — jail is called youth detention (juvie).