

Do not ask people to break rules

Do not ask people to break rules

- Do not ask someone else to help you break the rules in the domestic violence order (DVO).
- When the rule tells you to stay away from some people or places, do not ask someone else to talk to those people or go to those places for you.
- You will make trouble for that person, and trouble for yourself.

Conditions and orders