

Support
person

Support person

- Family member, friend, carer or another person you trust.
- This might be a person who works for a health or community service that helps people.
- Might sit with you when:
 - the police ask you questions about breaking the law
 - you talk to other people about your family relationships.
- Might also go with you to court.